

I am completely against any federal law that will over ride or limit any state law on the so called "no call" issue. The rights of the citizens should over ride the rights of business ventures on this issue.